

Meet Denice

Denice McMahan is a compassionate professional with a passion for pediatrics. A graduate of Middle Georgia State University, she is committed to supporting children and their families through individualized care. Denice believes in building meaningful connections with the families she works with, fostering collaboration and ensuring every child has the tools they need to thrive.

Outside of her professional life, Denice cherishes her family and the memories they create together. She and her husband, high school sweethearts, have been happily married since 2017 and are proud parents to two children who are just 15 months apart. Whether cheering her kids on or enjoying time outdoors, family is at the heart of all she does.

In her free time, Denice enjoys reading, crafting, swimming, and spending time with her loved ones. Her vibrant and creative spirit shines through in both her work and personal life, reflecting her dedication to making a positive impact on those around her.
