

Meet Karen

Karen Pama has a strong foundation in communication sciences and more than two decades of dedication to the field, Karen is an accomplished Speech-Language Pathologist committed to improving the lives of individuals with communication and swallowing disorders.

She earned a Master of Arts in Speech-Language Pathology from California State University, Chico in 1995, following a Bachelor of Science in Communication Disorders from the University of New Hampshire in Durham in 1991. This academic preparation established a deep understanding of human communication, clinical methodology, and evidence-based intervention practices.

As a certified member of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), [Name] holds the Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech-Language Pathology (CCC-SLP), demonstrating a commitment to the highest professional standards. In addition, Karen is licensed as a Speech-Language Pathologist in the State of Georgia, where they continue to provide compassionate, client-centered care across diverse settings.

Throughout her career, she has supported children with a wide range of communication needs, bringing clinical expertise, patience, and a collaborative spirit to every therapeutic relationship. Her work reflects a deep belief in the power of communication to connect people, build confidence, and transform lives.